Hawai‘i Institute for Public Affairs

The Hawai‘i Institute for Public Affairs (“HIPA”) is a nonprofit, nonpartisan and independent research and educational organization whose mission is to provide research, analysis and recommendations on public policy issues facing Hawai‘i, and to provide opportunities for individuals to develop as productive leaders and citizens in society. HIPA’s Center for Public Policy concentrates on policy and analysis and implementation to enable decision-makers to make sound policies that benefit Hawai‘i. Beyond just providing research briefs and issue papers, the Center strives to provide a neutral and supportive forum for key stakeholders and communities to implement policy recommendations outlined in reports.

Ho‘oulu Leadership Award

The Hawaiian word “Ho‘oulu” means to grow, stir up, inspire and excite. It is an appropriate name for HIPA’s leadership award – the Ho‘oulu Award – which seeks to celebrate the achievements of those men and women who have made a significant impact in the public affairs and public policy arena. Ho‘oulu honorees exhibit strong leadership, determination and devotion to excellence in their respective professions and occupations, and have made a positive and community-wide impact. Be it in business, labor, government, community or culture and the arts, Ho‘oulu awardees inspire in themselves and others excellence and commitment to make Hawai‘i a better place.
